5/16/72

Dear Harold,

Please excuse my failure to write in such a long time, but there has been little to say that cannot wait until we are together, plus, as you can imagine, school work has had to be given priority over my correspondence. I would have written concerning the epilogue, but as you know Dick neglected to send it in time for me to comment. I am sorry about that, for I would have liked to see it before the final copy was typed. I know that Dick is quite sorry about his carelessness.

If it is OK with you and Lil, I'd love to come down some time soon, although I won't be able to make it until after June1. How about tentatively during the first week in June?

There is so much I'd like to discuss with you, from assass. things (like Lattimer, spectro suit, Vawter letters) to political matters (latest Nixon insanity, plus research I will be doing on the Cold War next year for a course).

My main project this summer is the revising of my book, with the hope (pretty secure) that it will be published by the U. of P. Press in a revised form. The revision is something I want to do anyway, but I wouldn't now take the time unless I was reasonably certain of publication.

I've not heard from Jerry since he has visited you last, which kind of concerns me since we were to get in touch right after he returned from your place. I told him I'd call him, thinking I had his number, which I later found was not so. Still, I expected him to call when he saw a call from me was not forthcoming.

School is over and I'm home now for the summer, so please go back to using my home address, 8829 Blue Grass Rd.

I look forward to seeing you and Lil soon. My best to both of you.

Howard